ROUND-THE-CLOCK MILITARY EXERCISES TO TAKE PLACE AT JOINT FORCES TRAINING BASE

LOS ALAMITOS, Calif. – Visiting military units will be engaged in round-the-clock training exercises at Joint Forces Training Base beginning Tuesday, April 7th and concluding on Tuesday, April 14th. These exercises will include the use of blank ammunition and residents of communities located near the base may hear gunfire and simulated explosions at times throughout the duration of the exercises.

Flight operations at Los Alamitos Army Airfield will experience periods of increased air traffic and aircraft noise connected with the exercises, including aircraft landing and departing outside of normal operating hours on several evenings.

Air operations are tentatively scheduled to run until 7 p.m. on Saturday, April 11th, and until almost midnight on Monday night, April 13th.

Efforts will be taken to minimize any inconvenience to our neighbors associated with these training exercises.
