GROUND AND AIR OPERATIONS HIGHLIGHT MILITARY TRAINING AT JOINT FORCES TRAINING BASE IN JUNE

LOS ALAMITOS, Calif. – Joint Forces Training Base will host a number of California National Guard units conducting annual training in June. In addition, a visiting military aviation unit will be utilizing Los Alamitos Army Airfield for training exercises during several weeks this month.

Cal Guard units will be engaged in 24-hour operations during the annual training cycle at multiple sites throughout the 1,400-acre base, erecting tent cities and other equipment to support their citizen soldiers training to enhance their operational readiness.

Airfield operations will include periods of increased air traffic which may include low-flying helicopters landing and departing the base outside of normal operating hours.

Efforts will be taken to minimize inconvenience to our neighbors during these training exercises.
