Discussion

In October 2018, Staff began recruiting for five full term vacancies on the Planning Commission and one full term vacancy on the Personnel Appeals Commission. The deadline to apply was November 15, 2018. We received a total of eight applications before the deadline. Six of which are from incumbents. Staff has requested incumbents be present for questions and informed them formal interviews would not be needed at this time. Council may consider all applications received.

I have been on the commission for 5 years and have thoroughly enjoyed the work. We have made a lot of progress in completing the general plan and working on the zoning code. We are currently working on a major overhaul to the zoning code so it supports our general plan rather than conflict with the general plan. I have worked in the architecture, design and engineering world for over 25 years and I feel that experience is a major plus on the planning commission.

I would love the opportunity to continue on the commission to complete the work on the zoning code.

I've spent the last 19 years raising a family as a member of the Los Alamitos community. This combination of experience allows me to have a valuable perspective on the issues affecting the City and it's residents, while remaining open minded, reasonable, and able to make decisions and offer opinions that are in the best interest of the City and community.

During my tenure on the Commission, I've worked to engage fellow Commissioners and Staff in productive discussions that explore various aspects of a subject in an effort to make sure the Commission is making informed and well thought out decisions that are supported by the City's Zoning Code and General Plan.
