Elevate Teen Expo Experience

Summer Programs, Classes and More

Elevate Teen Expo was created with the objective to provide local teens with vital knowledge, resources, and experience that will help them elevate their life on a personal and professional level.

The Expo was a great success thanks to the title sponsor Southland Credit Union. Their contributions helped make this impactful event possible along with the Board of State and Community Corrections (BSCC) grant. The conference received a total of 44 registrations, which represented an increase of 35% from last year.

Arbor Day

On Thursday, April 27, the City of Los Alamitos celebrated Arbor Day by planting two Magnolia trees at Little Cottonwood Park. Mayor Tanya Doby and Council Member Trisha Murphy with shovels in hand, joined Public Works personnel to plant the two new trees along the north green belt closest to the parking lot. Additionally, the community was invited to visit the Development Services booth where they were given a free seedling (Chinese Pistachio) to plant at their residence and continue the City's commitment to expand its tree canopy.
