Small Business Saturday Recipient

Small Business Saturday just passed and we would like to thank everyone who contributed. However, the fun doesn't stop as we want to encourage residents to spread the joy and visit their favorite coffee shop, dine at your local restaurant, and support your hometown businesses throughout the Holiday season.

The City of Los Alamitos recognizes Lucky Peak's Barbershop as this year's Small Business Saturday recipient, representing the community of small business owners in Los Alamitos who dreamed of starting their own business. Friends since elementary school and locally grown, Joseph Luck and Nathan Peak co-own the shop and pride themselves in providing a warm and welcoming traditional barbershop experience. Come check out their unique shop filled with vintage collectibles and classic memorabilia while getting a fresh cut.
