Park Rehab

Canning Hunger

In Los Alamitos, the grass IS always greener. From December 4, 2023 - February 24, 2024, the open grass fields at Little Cottonwood Park & Laurel Park will be temporarily CLOSED for maintenance that involves turf rehab, planting grass seed, and applying fertilizer to promote healthier grass growth. This annual maintenance is done to prepare the park for all upcoming spring & summer activities.

If you have any questions, please reach us at: (562) 431-3538, Ext. 202

City of Los Alamitos residents will soon receive curb painting services that will include a City logo and their street address. This free service is optional for residents and will be performed by Canning Hunger, a non-profit hunger relief organization. As such, residents may remit a voluntary donation of $30 intended to help feed a family of 4 for an entire week. All donations are tax-deductible and can be made by check or online at canninghunger.org. For any questions or concerns related to this project, please contact Greg Contopulos from Canning Hunger at 1-888-345-3663.

Work will begin the week of February 26 in various parts of the City, weather permitting.
