Los Al Youth Track & Field

Run into the spring season with the City of Los Alamitos Co-ed Youth Track and Field program! This six-week program will occur on Mondays at the Oak Middle School Track from April 9 – May 14. The program will cover various track and field techniques and events led by Recreation Staff. All skill levels are welcome; the program is a great introduction to Track and Field events. The last session of the program will entail a Track & Field Meet where participants will compete amongst each other for top place finishes in various events such as the 50m, 100m, 200m, and Long Jump. 4th-8th grade will compete in the 400m and 800m, depending on skill level. An award and a singlet are included in the fee. Don't miss out on this opportunity!
