We are excited to invite you to join us for this Saturday April 26 to the Arbor Day Celebration from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. at Little Cottonwood Park. As a nationally recognized Tree City USA City, this event is a wonderful opportunity to celebrate the beauty of nature, encourage a love for the environment, and have fun connecting with our wonderful community! The day will feature family-friendly activities such as face painting, arts & crafts for kids, a bounce house, tree planting, and more! We will also be offering free seedlings (while supplies last) for participants to take home and plant. We also have an exciting nature walk planned, where kids can participate in

2–3-minute exciting workshops and learn about the importance of trees and the environment. Before the main festivities begin, we've teamed up with UWS to offer a free compost and mulch giveaway starting at 9:00 a.m. (residents only). We look forward to seeing you there!

Recreation and Community Services

Teen Expo Recap

The City of Los Alamitos Recreation & Community Services Department hosted the fourth annual Elevate Teen Expo event on Saturday, April 12, 2025. The event was held at the Los Alamitos Community Center (10911 Oak St) from 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. This personal development conference invited local middle and high school students to explore various learning topics through breakout sessions designed to help navigate the trials and tribulations of life. The main topics included personal discovery, self-confidence, safety, special interests, and Adulting 101. This event successfully came to life through the partnership of many local supporting organizations, led by the City of Los Alamitos team members Recreation Coordinator Samantha Kenny and Senior Recreation Leader Jazzmyn Loe.
